Pledge to the Flag

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

BURLINGTON HIGH

and the second property of the second of the second

Although we students of Burlington High School cannot go onto the battlefield, we can remain here and do our share by supporting and promoting the plans of our government for offense.

The theme of this '42 annual, "What so Proudly we Hail," fully expresses our duty—that of hailing our school, our faculty and our fellow students. But above all—we hail our God, our Country, our Flag, and our Creed:

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon the principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its Flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

PROUDLY WE HAIL . . ."

CLASS SONG

(To the tune of "The Marine Hymn")

From the halls of dear old B.H.S.
We shout our liberty.
For we're the solemn seniors,
And we're marching to victory.
As we look into the future
With our high school days behind,
The memories of those glorious days
Will aways be brought to mind.

So farewell old alma mater
As we leave for unknown fields.
And though the task be great or small
We will proudly wave our shields.
Though our paths may never cross again,
As we go down through the years
We'll ne'er forget thee, dear old school,
Though thy memory brings back tears.

W. C. LLOYD.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

"Freshmen," that's what we were four years ago, But four years have slipped away with time We have stood the test and conquered all, And now the title "Seniors" we have won.

Soon we shall leave this shrine and journey forth Into the world to start our task anew May we have faith, and always look ahead A goal of shining brilliance to obtain. Dear Juniors, may you take your place in line. Strive not to be the brightest in the crown The best will come to those who will but try And tide nor time can never hold you down.

We leave with this last thought and then good-bye. Time never stops but only goes ahead. But somewhere in the future yet unseen, We will stop just long enough for one last dream.

CLASS PROPHECY

Let's take a trip about ten years into the future via Doctor Wonmug's famous Time Machine and see what our seniors will be doing then. I step into the machine, the switch is thrown, and I'm off.

Whew! What a trip! I would have probably been seriously injured if I hadn't landed on my head. I get up, brush myself off, and look around, to find that I have landed right in front of the Municipal Building. Maybe I can get some information inside. Upon walking into the mayor's office, I find that his honor is none other than Garland Newlin. This is really a stroke of good luck, for he should be able to tell me about our former classmates. I start firing questions at him, and as a result, I find the following things true of the class of '42:

Tommy Stratford is president of the United States, having beaten Roosevelt in the last election.

Kenneth Coble is secretary of agriculture.

Ruby Cooper has finally married a millionaire; she now has a diamond ring, bracelets, and Johnny Walker is chief of police, and other policemen are: Raymond Ferguson, George Cross, Robert Faggart, Dickey Fowler, and Alton Durham.

Enestine Collins and Lelia Clemmer are co-wners and operators of the Moderne Beauty Salon.

Llouise Cheek is teaching little tots how to tickle the ivories.

Russell Isley is an inventor; he has just gotten a patent on a stepless step-ladder to be used in washing the basement windows.

Margaret Graves has reached the height of her ambition: marriage.

Nat Garrison and Richard Harrell are owners and operators of the W. E. Gippum Pawn Shop.

Adrian Wiggins, Lasley Dameron, Dalton Z.chary, Joe Neese, D. J. Bell, and L. C. Blanchard arc all on the University of North Carolina football team. They defeated Duke 187-0 last year.

Betty Fidler is running an old maid's home. Some of the "inmates" are: Betsy Barrett, Eileen Georgi, Betty Dixon, Evelyn Dill, Amelia Flowers, Shirley Cook, Jennie Lee Barham, and Maxing Cash.

Dickey Anderson is manager of the Boogey-Woogey Piggly-Wiggly; Leonard Loy is the checker, and Parker King, Joe Rogers, and Cleo Phillips are clerks.

Deleano Hall and Vincent Long are married, and they have a son named John G. Long (the G stands for genius).

Thomas Brooks inherited a million dollars from a rich uncle, and naturally all the females have fallen in love with him. Lucille Bowland, Maxine Pennington, Fay Goad, Frances Barnwell, and Laura Jean Askew are among the ones trying desperately to hook him.

R. D. Hayes is that golden-voiced tenor you hear every Sunday night on the Krunchie-Wunchies Corn Flakes program. The orchestra is under the direction of Bobby Anderson.

A good many of our seniors seem to have gone into newspaper work. The Times-News staff includes: G. H. Isley, editor-in-chief; Jackie Pielce, circulation manager; Casey Jones, advertising manager; Harold Jones, assistant advertising manager; Glenn Harrison, sports editor; Salve Koury, society editor; Lois Leach, assistant; Mary Lee, brokkeeper; Wendell Isley, mechanical superintendent; Dalton Hensley, Robert Moore, Dan Murr, W. C. Lloyd, and Ben Sharpe, Linotype; Buddy Lindsay, pressman; James Wagoner and Thomas Terrell, sterotype. George Huffines, Bill Humble, and Richard Hogan are newsboys.

Fmily Joyner's name is now Mrs. Emily Joyner Simmons.

Sarah Albright has organized an all-girl band. Some of her talented musicians are: Jarct Baker, Mary Kathryn Bain, Lucy Allison, Pearl Clapp, Inez Coleman, Hilda Fowler, and Juanita Hammock.

Ed Milton is manager of Sears Roebuck and Co.

Seymour Levin inherited the junk yard, but lost it in a "game of chance." It is now known as the Burlington Second-Hand Metal Company, owned and operated by Gus Muckenfuss.

Elizabeth Adams and Henry Isley are married. They are a good, solid couple who have no trouble keeping their feet on the ground.

Carl Harmon is a quarterback at Michigan. He carries the ball even better than his uncle Tom. Thelma Heartthrob, the original "Gee Whiz" girl, is none other than Hazel Self. Ronald Colemeat, the idol of millions, who put Clark Gable completely in the dark, is our own Jimmy Murray.

Vernon Brown got caught trying to steal a tire off a car, and his trial comes up this week. Lynn Blackwell is the prosecuting attorney, and Lloyd Buff is the attorney for the defense. Poor Vernon hasn't a chance.

Paul Dixon can be heard every night on Fred Waring's program; he's the sound effects man Newman Cox is a big time racketeer; he is running a protective association. Luther Allen, Jack Ketner, Richard Coley, and Craig May are his thugs, Jessie Mae Jeffcoat is his bejeweled and sable-wrapped gun-moll, and Louis Allen is his shyster lawyer.

Mary Moser is in jail for trying to pick Ben Stearns's pocket during a blackout.

Ervin Sykes now owns the foundery, and Paul Thompson, Irving Williams, Richard Sykes, and Herman Storey are working there.

Annie Pearl Hughes is head of the Women's Temperance Society; one of her fiery speeches put Dewey Councilman and Elmer Hunley completely on the water wagon.

Eris Johnson has quit loving everyone and confined her affections to Bud Phillips. They are now happily married.

C. D. Gattis is still going to see Hazel Vaughn. He has rheumatism and can't get down on his knees to propose.

Remember Bill Bolin? Gene Coyner is married to him.

The Smith Wholesale Company was completely desroyed by fire last night, and poor Freeman didn't have any insurance.

N. M. Gilmore went off to college and they lixed him so well they wouldn't let him leave. He's been there for nine years and he is still a freshman.

Irma Delle Hargrove and Allene Bell are stil fighting over Earl Horner.

Frances St. Clair is waiting for J. W. Jackson to grow up so she can marry him.

Clinton Vanhoy owns a chain of five theaters; the Paramount, Carolina, Alamance, State, and a colored theater on Worth Street. Jack Moore m rages the Worth Street establishment.

Madame X, the torrid singer with Danny Dr p's orchestra, is none other than Dottie Stubbe D'dn't you recognize her voice?

That dancing school located over the O. C. Hopkins Department Store is run by Elsie Payne and Juanita Sharpe. Agnes Dunn and Hilda Andrews have been taking lessons there for five years, and they still don't know a thing about dancing.

It wasn't until the end of the first semester that the officials at Meredith College found out that one of the "girls" was really Lyle Craven in disguise.

Nora Lee Cook, Kathryn Somers, and June Sellars may be currently seen in Kenneth Taylor's Broadway show, "Heckzasizzlin."

Margaret Rouse, Margaret McAllan, Ruth Evans, Edna Hickey, Rachel Smith, and Evelyn Ross

John Fred Johnson discovered a new formula for cement while eating one of Vivian Rice's biscuits.

Betty Jean Haynes is still living up to the nickname of "chatterbox."

Brooks Spence and Ed Overman are owners of the Spence-Overman Motor Company. Douglas

Williams is head mechanic.

Taking a tour of the leading stores of Burlington. you will find that: Fay and Ella Rae Whitesell. Thelma White, Margie Williams, and Margaret Trexler work at Raylass: Laura Wood and La Verne Thomas work at Roses; Patsy Patton, Fay Johnson, and Dorothy Suggs can be found at Belk's; Doris Whitaker, Virginia Thornton, Mildred Haney, Ruth Poteat, and Agatha Prater are among the clerks at McLellan's; and at Woolworth's you w'll see Elsie Mae Thompson, Betty Rae Oakley, Una May Hinshaw, Louise and Martha Moser, Gladys Morris, and Mary and Helen Perry.

Lewis Clemmer and Donald Murray comprise the firm of Clemmer & Murray, attorneys-at-law. The six swingerettes, that sextet you hear over the radio is made up of six of our seniors; they are: Lois Adams, Bernice Barger, Corina Blanchard, Mildred Boone, Carrie Mize, and Erma Morton.

The Colonial Billiard Parlor is owned and operated by Carl Oakley; Clarke Patterson and Norman Self are regular patrons.

Betsy Stafford, Peggy Peerson, and Hilda Phillips are models in a New York department store.

Mary Frances Mann is still trying to get a man.

Clarence Swinney is a minister.

Ruby Storey, Dorothy Holland, Helen James, Ruth Jones, Julia McEntyre, Evelyn Madden and Peggy McLendon are members of the I.W.A.M. (I want a man) club.

Vernon Miles runs the Elite Eatery, located on Worth Street; Fay Mitchell, Corinne Latta, and Virginia Neal are waitresses, and Alluwee Jones is the cashier.

Doris Lyon is teaching typing at the High School.

Buddy Wade is running a laundry; he calls it Wade's Washery.

Nellie Sykes and Jacqueline Logan are in Hollywood; the doctor told them they needed a change of climate.

Mary Snipes finally quit being so bashful and got married.

Nobody knows what happened to Bettie Temple.

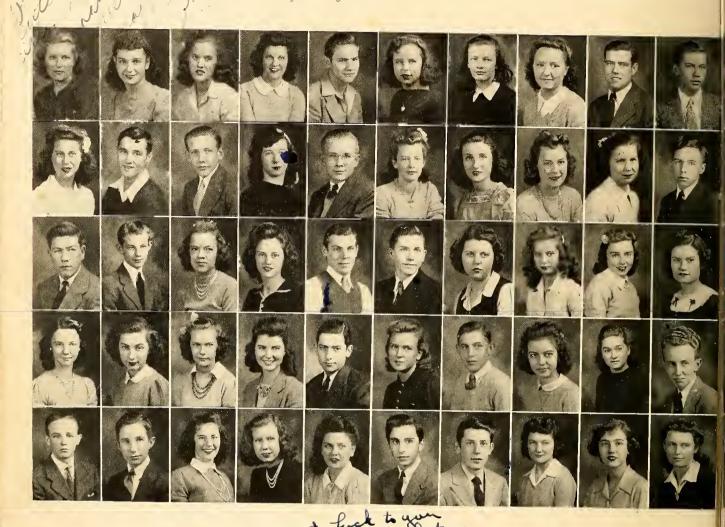

Grey Adams and Sam Spoon have joined the Foreign Legion. Grey had an unfortunate love affair, and Sam joined merely for the excitement.

Well, that is what our seniors will be doing in 1952, maybe. Now let's go back to 1942 and forget all about it; it is probably no more accurate than tomorrow's Time-News weather forecast.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL Burlington High School is entering a new sports era. This year for the first time in its history it is a member of the western division of the Class "A" conference.

The football team this season led by new coaches, Belew, Clayton, and Qurnell, had a fair season of two wins, one tie, and six losses. The record does not show the spirit of the team, and the odds they played against. With the return of the majority of the lettermen the prospects for next year are better than for the last two years. With the installation of midget and junior teams the prospects of our football teams are even better.

The Girls' Basketball team had its best season of the last three years. The prospects for next year are very bright. The majority of the players will be juniors with two years of playing experience. They lost only two lettermen—St. Clair and Madden, two good all-round players. The boy cagers surprised the Class "A" conference this year with its play. The Bulldogs ranked second in the conference next to Greensboro. Prospects for next year are only fair, with the return of only six players, only two of which are lettermen. From a thirteen man squad four of the boys were named on the All-Conference squad: Wiggins—first team, Neese—second team, Stratford and Sorrell—honorable mention.
